

Download File PDF Free Proposing A Solution Essay

#Jenny

Finally I get this ebook, thanks for all these I can get now!

#Rio

Cool! I'am really happy

#Markus Jensen

I did not think that this would work, my best friend showed me this website, and it does! I get my most wanted eBook

#Hun Tsu

wtf this great ebook for free?!

#Che Salsa

My friends are so mad that they do not know how I have all the high quality ebook which they do not!

#Diego Butler

so many fake sites. this is the first one which worked! Many thanks

Download PDF version of :
Free Proposing A Solution Essay

PROBLEM SOLUTION ESSAY (#4) EWRT 1A

The Writing Assignment Essay #4: Proposing a Solution: Essay (4-6 pages) 175 points Assignment: Write an essay from 4-6pages in length, that addresses the topic below. Use a minimum of three credible sources to support your argument.

Prompt: Write an essay proposing a solution to a well-defined problem faced by a community or group to which you may belong. Alternatively, you may address a well-defined problem faced by one of the districts or communities in The Hunger Games. Address your proposal to your audience: one or more members of the group, its leadership, or to outsiders who may be able to contribute to solving the problem.

Student Learning Objectives

- Devise creative solutions to a problem
- Evaluate a range of possible solutions
- Learn about contemporary problems
- Engage in reasoned argument
- Convince readers of a problem's significance before proposing actions
- Define a problem concisely and effectively
- Analyze audiences to anticipate likely questions and alternative, preferred solutions
- Refute, accommodate, or acknowledge possible objections to the proposed solution
- Read texts analytically
- Reflect metacognitively on what they have learned

Basic Features of a Problem/Solution Essay

A Well-Defined Problem

Defining your problem for your readers requires you to do the following:

- establish a context for the problem (historical/current)
- specifically define the problem
- explain how it works (i.e. that it exists)
- describe the problem's importance (i.e. that it needs solving)
- use key words to label the problem

A clearly described solution and a convincing argument in support of the proposed solution require you to do the following:

- establish the target audience for your solution
- explain how the solution will work
- show the extent of its impact (benefits)
- show that it is feasible

An anticipation of readers' objections and questions requires you to do the following:

- answer readers' questions to your solution
- acknowledge readers' objections
- concede your solution's shortcomings